

Clare Rowe

BA (Psychology), PG Dip Psychology

Clare completed her undergraduate degree at the University of Sydney and is currently undertaking her Masters degree at UWS, specializing in Child developmental and educational psychology.

She has played a range of competitive sports including hockey, softball and cricket. She is currently a competitive ballroom dancer, traveling interstate and overseas as well as being employed as a dance coach.

Clare is working specifically with the EAP hockey squad at NSWIS, introducing mental skill training to younger up and coming athletes.

Email: clarezrowe@me.com