

WE ARE LOOKING FOR

ATHLETE PRESENTERS FOR HIGH PERFORMANCE CAMPS

Expression of interest

The AIS is looking for athletes to present athlete wellbeing and engagement sessions at High Performance Camps held at the AIS in Canberra. This is a paid opportunity to actively engage with other athletes and help them develop their personal and professional skills and strategies. You will receive training and content to deliver at the camps.

AIS High Performance Camps include physical, technical and educational experiences to assist pre-elite and elite athletes from a range of sports, to progress along their high performance pathway.

This is an opportunity to:

- demonstrate and refine your presentation and facilitation skills
- build your athlete profile
- build your network across the sporting system
- earn additional income to support your sporting pursuit.

Fill in your details below, then save and email this form to your Athlete Wellbeing & Engagement Manager and athleteappearances@sportaus.gov.au.

Name: Sport:

Date of birth: Place of residence:

Mobile: Email:

Please outline your qualifications, skills and work experience:

List any previous speaking engagements or presentation experience:

List major sporting competitions, camps or events you will be involved in during 2019 (include dates):